excerpt from golden rules for cigar smokers i came i went to the shops at eventide i saw and i relented cigar smoking among the race of those whom i am proud to term my immediate pupils the men who to be decent shave daily is just as it should be but the junior smokers don t seem to be half awake yet i confess the up alling and to me about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works for generations now it has been possible to separate cigar lovers into two major categories those who prefer havanas and those who don t it is a difference that can be as crucial to those involved as say the difference between full bodied red wine and sweet white with wit and skill the author makes a forthrightly chauvinistic approach to comparison between the attractions of women of spirituous liquors and of the havana cigar sound like a connoisseur and get the most out of your cigars for beginners and regular cigar smokers alike first published in 1993 the ultimate cigar book has become a classic in its field and is generally credited with having helped launch the current cigar smoking craze it has been reprinted numerous times in the united states and is now sold worldwide no other book contains as much detailed and factual information on virtually every facet of cigar making and cigar smoking and now this trendsetting book has been revised in this fourth edition for the aficionado of the future. For the enthusiast on a fun and fact-filled adventure into virtually every realm of today's popular and growing cigar smoking pastime, written by one of the most knowledgeable and internationally celebrated pipe and cigar authors of our time, Richard Carleton Hacker's well-known wit and wisdom will keep the reader enthralled with every turn of the page as he takes you on an information-packed tour of cigars starting off with a history of cigar smoking. The author then shows us how cigars are made today, handmade, hand-rolled, and machine-made, divulging the secrets of finding the perfect cigar and discussing the ritual of smoking and how to properly care for and store our cigars. From there, the book lists a number of innovative cigar accessories, suggests which beers, wines, whiskeys, brandies, and cognacs go with what cigars, enlightens us with a chapter on cigar smoking celebrities, and concludes with the world's first international compendium of virtually every cigar brand known today, complete with histories and observations on taste according to the author's highly prejudiced Hacker Scale ratings. If that was not enough, there is even a dictionary of cigarspeak. The ultimate cigar book is the most comprehensive, factual, and up-to-date book for the cigar smoker or for those who just want to learn more about the fascinating and popular world of cigar smoking.

Favored by everyone from fashion icons to movie stars, cigar smoking is sexy and cigar smokers are getting younger. Cigar Cool is a tribute to cigar smoking's return to popularity, now that it has caught on with a new generation of enthusiasts. Enormously popular in clubs and bars, cigars have become the new fashion accessory, and the stylish photographs in this book track its new role in society. The book is also a comprehensive guide to the main cigar styles, sizes, and related tools and accessories.
